There are seven levels of play in Arlington Little League:

(Detailed information, including time commitment required at each level, can be found at www.arlingtonlittleleague.org)

Slam Ball (Age 4)	Tee Ball (Ages 5-6)	Rookies (Ages 6*-7) <small>* with Tee Ball experience</small>	Minors (Ages 8-9)	AAA (Ages 9-11)	Majors (Ages 10-12) <small>* includes optional 50/70 transition program</small>	Challengers (Ages 5-22) <small>* Only $25!</small>
-----------------------------	-------------------------------	--	-----------------------------	---------------------------	--	--

Age is determined by player's age on April 30, 2012.

Slam Ball through Minors:

Play with friends from your school and neighborhood! Teams are kept small to maximize hitting and fielding opportunities for each player. Scores and standings are not kept at these levels until the Minors level, when a fun playoff tournament ends the season.

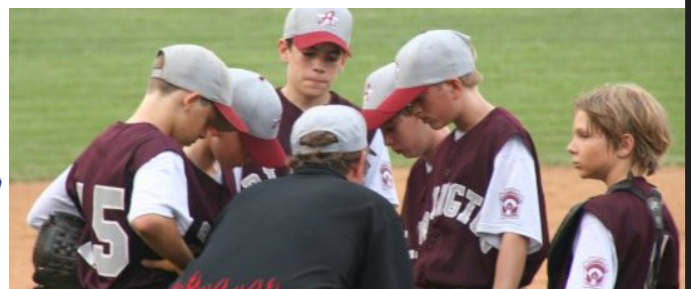

AAA and Majors:

A draft system ensures competitive balance and a diverse mix of friends from school and new friends from around the county. To assist in the draft process, players not returning to a Majors team attend a fun and friendly evaluation session, where parents, coaches, and league officials can decide together which level is most appropriate for each child.

2012 sessions will be Sunday, February 26th and Sunday, March 4th. Additional information will be sent via e-mail beginning in early February.

Challengers:

Children with mental and physical disabilities enjoy playing weekly games in a unique program, side-by-side with “buddies” from the Majors division. Challengers registration fee is only $25!
